Speaking Engagements:

Dennis and Jennifer were invited by Irene Herzog to do a talk, Introduction to the Blame Frame to her condominium co-residents in Thornhill. There were some 50+ persons present. It was the basis for some lively exchanges. At the end one lady said to Dennis, "I am afraid I am too old to change." To this I said to her, "As long as you have the breath of life, the battle goes on." Another lady raised her hand during the presentation and declared with a sudden awareness; "I know now how it is I lost my friends. I always kept asking them WHY." At the end of the presentation, I was to meet her again. She then told me, "I now know how it is that my husband has always been blaming me for every thing and how it is that he is always RIGHT.

Published Papers

Across 2009 a scan of papers have been published in various journals.

We would like to mention especially two articles.

The first is in the summer 2009 issue of the official magazine of IACT and IMDHA, Unlimited Human. It published the paper, A Case Study to Index the Place of Language Structures in Therapy by Dennis and Jennifer

The second is the paper, An Approach to Psychotherapy, Part I, was published in The Journal of Hypnotism, September 2009, Volume 24, No. 3.

NSP Community

In October, Andre and Margaret Marsan went to a holiday in New Orleans.

Eleanor Chong gave birth to her second son, Henry. Henry will be Dennis' and Jennifer's second grandson.

It was a catastrophic event for Dennis & Jennifer that they had to assent to the decision to put down their beagle, Moe. Even as the vet was slowing giving Moe the lethal injection, Jennifer bravely cradled him. Margaret we thank you for you kind poem about Moe, your card and your pictures of him.
