

Some Testimonials of the No-Y-ian Seminar

Name (please print): Aron West

I offer this feedback about this No-Y-ian Seminar that I have just completed.

A vast quantity of fascinating informations and insights offered through a variety of techniques and mediums. There were some places where I desired further details and clarifications in the information, and additionally more time to develop an incipient proficiency at the skills being imparted. Perhaps the seminar would be better if it were expanded by another day. I feel my awareness has been increased a great deal beyond the level in the question of Why?! Seminars.

It provided a ~~theoretical~~ way of transferring your ^{style} ~~way~~ of thinking & communicating with others from a negative, often destructive mode to a more positive, productive method.

- a look into how you yourself & others perceive things & process information
- ~~how~~ how to deal with people who apply the blame to you.
- increased knowledge of psychological/brain processes.
- an awareness of a need for a personal ~~change~~ ^{move in the} ~~change~~ direction of the NO-Y-IAN way of thinking

I can really see how operating out of the blame game will ~~be~~ ^{be} positive, affect my personal relationships

I offer this feedback about this No-Y-ian Seminar that I have just completed.

I HAVE ENJOYED THE FOUR DAYS OF THIS SEMINAR. EACH DAY HAS BROUGHT AN AWARENESS OF THE IMPORTANCE OF COMMUNICATION AND HOW WE CAN SO EASILY MISINTERPRET WHAT A PERSON IS SAYING.

I FOUND THE EXERCISES VERY USEFUL FOR HANDS-ON - PRACTICAL APPLICATIONS. I ALSO UNDERSTAND NOW HOW THESE HAVE TO BE REPEATED AGAIN AND AGAIN TO BECOME "GOOD AT IT."

I LOOK FORWARD TO WORKING WITH THE GROUP TO KEEP AT THIS.

I WOULD LIKE TO THANK YOU BOTH FOR THIS WONDERFUL GIFT OF THE NO-Y-IAN LANGUAGE. AFTER THE "QUESTION OF WHY" I HAVE WANTED TO GO TO THIS AND THAT I'M HERE I CAN SEE THAT THIS IS ONLY A BEGINNING.

I offer this feedback about this No-Y-ian Seminar that I have just completed.

This seminar has opened a new door in the understanding of communication of the way we speak and the control that language has on our lives. It is clear that the old methods of the Blame Frame must be broken down to be replaced by a more productive and precise method of thinking and speaking → The No-Y-ian Frame.

The usefulness of the No You Seminar has become extremely clear. Not only is it useful ~~is~~ as a tool and process of solving our individual problems today, ~~but it is~~ ^{will be} invaluable in solving and collapsing problems in the future.

In addition the knowledge will be invaluable in all relationships whether they be personal or on a professional level.

It has given me a better way of finding myself, and to communicate with others in a different way.

It is amazing how we are stuck in the blame frame in so many ways.

In my humble opinion this seminar is worth repeating again.

Power Seminar Feedback--February 1999

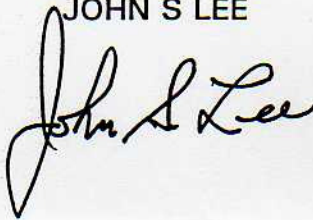

My sincere thanks to Dennis and Jennifer Chong and in particular to my fellow seminar participants. Our weekly study sessions, during the last 6 months, since completing the Power Seminar, have greatly enhanced my understanding of the concepts, material and its effective integration into my everyday life.

To me the Power Seminar has propelled me to a new plateau of understanding and more importantly personal Style Modification which all started some years ago when I first attended the "Question of Why" and then the "De-Imprinting" Seminars. I was firmly rooted in the "Blame Frame" and totally at the mercy of the "Should Be" syndrome. This manifested itself in a very rigid Autocratic Style-which in turn caused serious problems for me in both my personal and public lives.

Today the process of real Personal Change has begun for me. I am very aware of the "W" word and try day by day to avoid its use thus gathering more information in other ways and avoiding in the process being warped out of shape by holding everybody and everything up to the "Should Be" standard. The process for me is ongoing and practice will improve my performance. Dare I say that my Autocratic nature has modified to the point of being Benevolently Autocratic and someday I may make it all the way to being a nice, well formed Human Being ??

I can honestly say I feel progress is being made and I do have new Hope and Faith in a better tomorrow. No longer am I compelled to repeat all my heartbreaking mistakes of yesterday achieving the same unacceptable results! I was not able to effect any of these changes on my own but only after working through these Seminars--I commend them to You! GOD BLESS!

I offer this feedback about this No-Y-ian Seminar that I have just completed.

Personally, I enjoyed learning about my inner programming, how I assemble information and play it back, how I relate to what is asked of me and told.

I now realize I have a tremendous amount of work to cover in order to get out of the Blame Frame I have been living in. I have a new language to learn and a new mannerism in presentation.

At this point in my life I accept the challenge and will not let this opportunity go until I have raised my level of awareness.

Thank you both for opening the door.

I am nearly overwhelmed with information.
I am exhausted.

My world has been all shook up again.

Did I just come out of the egg I was living in into a new world?

I will not see, hear or feel the same again.

I'm not sure if I am happy about it yet, however, I do know that ignorance was not, bliss.

Life in the No-Y-ian Frame will be better for me.

Re: The No-Y-ian Seminar

Very briefly this is what I would like to share with you about the No-Y-ian Seminar:-

THE SUBJECT MATTER IS MIND-BOGGLING.
THE MANNER IN WHICH THE MATERIAL WAS PRESENTED WAS LOGICAL + SEQUENTIAL.
THE SAME AS BUILDING A HOUSE FROM THE FOUNDATION UP. IN THE TWO WEEKENDS WE SPENT
I BELIEVE WE PUT INTO PLACE THE WHOLE
IN THE GROUND, + THE FORMS FOR THE FOUNDATION. A BIT OF CEMENT HAS BEEN POURED INTO THE FORMS. NOW, WE CAN START BUILDING THE STRUCTURE.

IT IS GOOD TO KNOW THAT THERE IS A SOURCE TO GO TO. - DR. CHONG + JENNIFER + THEIR BOOKS.

After completing the power seminar I feel ~~better~~^{self} expressed in my relationships. I also find that I am better able to sort out my feeling & then move on - either to decide what I have to ~~see~~ say, to do, or to simply do nothing.

This course requires a great deal of self-directed study & exploration. It also sparks one's curiosity.

I offer this feedback about this No-Y-ian Seminar that I have just completed.

This past two week-ends, I believe have planted on my mind some concepts that I had not experienced before, even though I believe that I am able only to make the slightest penetration on the concept. But I feel that the benefit of the work is tremendous and unlimited.

At times I wished I could understand the concept concepts a little earlier and with a rigorous definition.

Thank you,
A job well done JOB

As an NLP trainer, I have become familiar with the concepts and teachings embodied in the No-Y-ian Seminar, ~~however~~, A light went on during the course of the 2nd weekend when I fully realized the difference between NLP & NSP. There is a difference and the difference is based upon the foundational elements of lasting change. NSP addresses & teaches "the meaning" of human behaviour & how one can "unlock" the problematic structures inherent in the BLAME FRAME

This seminar, the information contained in it, as well as the work involved, has assisted me tremendously. My level of awareness has increased exponentially vis-a-vis what ^{and who} is/are around me. I am truly fascinated with the information that has opened up a new domain of communicating.

THIS SEMINAR HAS OPENED MY HORIZONS
IMMENSELY. IT HAS WORKED FOR ME
LIKE MAGIC. MOST OF THE WORK (WHICH I FOUND VERY INTENSE) WAS AN EXCELLENT CHALLENGE OR EXERCISE
FOR MY BRAIN. THIS WORK IS NOW BEING DIGGESTED OR STORED INTO THE DIFFERENT COMPARTMENTS AND IN THE PROCESSE NOURISHING MY WHOLE BEING.
I PLAN TO ~~USE~~ ^{OR STORE} THIS NOURISHMENT WISELY AND HELP OTHERS WITH IT AND HOPEFULLY IT WILL BE A MUCH BETTER WORLD TO LIVE IN.

I offer this feedback about this No-Y-ian Seminar that I have just completed.

An ability to read between the lines in the course of communication. An ability to communicate at the maximum of potential.

An increased awareness of communication sent to others and received by myself in the course of personal and business relationships. A concrete understanding of how each individual relates to the world and others by his thinking; which is unique to each individual. In conclusion one must understand where the individual is coming from to understand how he attains his thoughts and responses. In turn the individual must be responded to in his understanding of reality and his language.

In summary I now can:

- Focus on goals quicker.
- Replace fear of obstacles in my path with the confidence of conquering them and proceeding toward my ^{focus} goal and set a precedent for success.
- Enjoy life more. Enjoy my youth and health
- Save time by getting rid of bullshit fast and avoid feeling guilty about getting rid of bullshit.

I offer this feedback about this No-Y-ian Seminar that I have just completed.

This seminar was informational as well as educational. The concepts of the 2 frames are quite interesting, and it certainly opens your eyes and mind to the blame frame world we deal with on a daily basis. What was most useful in this seminar is learning how to defend yourself against the Blame frame.

I am open to learning even more, because it is useful and practical in dealing with people on any level. I will attend these seminar (Why, and No-Y-ian) again, as the second time around I hope to get even more out of it.

Thanking Both

To Dennis and Jennifer - this is the feedback that I would like to share with you about the worth, value and usefulness of the No-Y-ian Seminar to me.

Invaluable in terms of $'s. There is no price tag for something we all possess. To be able to explore ~~the~~ ^{as to} whom we are ~~to~~ exploit this discovery of our being to be able to make the world a better place to be ~~to~~ be with is very powerful. I could have lived ~~to~~ never discovered the nature of myself. ~~I would have~~ This life experienced would be missed.

Today is a start in the ~~right~~ direction of future knowledge & experiences.

Success as defined in the use of these techniques from using.

The NO-Y-IAN Training can be defined ^{that} as long as ~~we~~ ^I move.

~~towards~~ progressively towards AN Outcome ~~we~~ ^{we} will ^{something} feel ~~success~~ I am successful in achieving ~~something as a goal~~ from this training.

I offer this feedback about this No-Y-ian Seminar that I have just completed.

I considered the training as an opportunity to explore existence at a most basic level of engagement - as an exercise in immediate and total attention to how one lives - in the moment.

To attempt to understand how whatever we are ... works. And so, if there is latitude in the type and ~~the~~ direction of our actions - in thought and deed - that I could gain some useful knowledge in this regard.

I believe the material & the teachers to be "core" in nature and so I feel this track is "real."

Dennis & Jennifer Chong have shown me the Blame Frame, and how to recognize it. They have also done the same with the No-Y-ian frame, and how to use the No-Y-ian frame to co-exist within this world in which we live.

This has been an extraordinary experience.

I can honestly say, I would ~~have~~ like ~~to see the No-Y-ian Seminar to be longer than 4 days, for there is a lot of information to take in, in such a short space in time.~~

This seminar has in "Don't ask Why" has opened my eyes even more so and has allowed to climb that mountain a little further. Although I still find that I am some what still confused especially when the terminology is used I feel that I have a better grasp. This information is extremely useful when I can apply to several situations.

It will take a while to sat and re-sat but the aspect of learning and apply this to enrich myself ~~and~~ excites me. Thankyou for sharing your wealth of knowledge with me.

I look forward to continuing on

I have become a better listener. I think more before I speak. I do not blame anyone for my problems, I accept the fact that I have a will of my own + so does everyone else. I can identify well formed - ill formed relationships & situations.

I have accepted the responsibility for any conditions I come to in my life. I look for the reality of a condition or situation and accept it. I face my problems and take positive action to change the conditions that relate to them. I have identified - I am kinesthetic. I experienced the ability to recognize the anchor that will take me in a desired state. ~~§~~

IF THE FINAL OUTCOME OF OUR BEING IS TO REACH HEAVEN, THEN THE NO-Y-IAN WAY IS MANDATORY TO ACCOMPLISH THIS. THE THOUGHT OF BECOMING PURE CAN NOT BE ENVISIONED WITHOUT FIRST BECOMING PROFICIENT AS A NO-Y-IAN.
