About the Freedom Seminar

Dr. Dennis Chong, M.D. and Jennifer Chong, R.N. have been in clinical practice since 1979. They developed the Freedom Seminar as the first of a number of critical teaching tools to help their clients, who were stuck in their unique and sometimes terrible problem states.

By the success of the program, the Freedom Seminar has proven its incredible worth and value to the lives of over 7000 people. Even though the seminar has been very successful, the Chongs never considered it to be helpful to the general public. However, from the feedback it became apparent, that the tools presented in the Freedom Seminar were invaluable. The participants gained a better and more powerful class of thinking mindsets to use in their daily lives.

Certainly, if on-and-off over the span of your life you have had to endure:

Fear and Anger
Anguish and Frustration
Pain and Suffering
Woe and Tears

then, without question, this seminar is for you.

Even if you have not been afflicted with the above emotions, this seminar is still for you. People are offshoots of their own operating system, or way of thinking. To be able to relate or communicate with others in a truly meaningful and realistic way, it is helpful to know what this operating system is.

We wish to note, that human beings can adapt. In doing so, we habituate and then accommodate to the conditions which we are in. We note this, because sometimes people can be afflicted emotionally as cited above, but because of their power and facility of adaptation, habituation and accommodation, they become unaware of their predicament. The only time they are aware of this, is when the condition exacerbates.

However, they can readapt so quickly, that it is as if they instantly think that everything is fine.

In realizing that the Freedom Seminar has universal value and worth, we hope that you will consider attending.
