

The Chong Induction Algorithm a.k.a. The Universal Hypnotic Gambit

by

Dennis K. Chong and Jennifer K. Smith Chong ©

In this paper, the male pronoun will apply to either gender. The plural pronoun will apply to both authors. The nominal pronoun will apply to the first author.

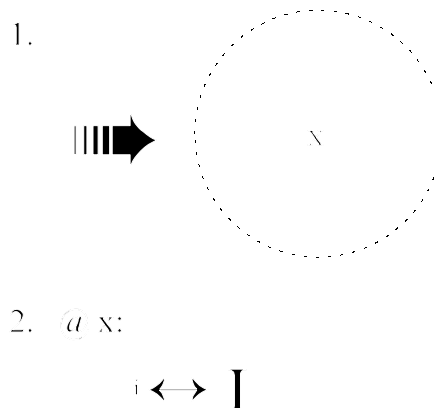

For the first time, we are releasing to the general community of our professionals and peers the information concerning this hypnotic induction method.

This induction method is:

1. the key to the replication of model for pain free surgery by hypnosis as delineated in the work The Knife Without Pain
2. the critical conduit for the process for the inversion of a cancer as evidenced by the Hillapieli case.

For these events, cited above, like the first atomic nuclear explosion at los Alamos, New Mexico in 1945, there was no rehearsal.

The entire algorithm is to achieve what we diagramatize below

This is the verbalization for the gambit:

1. please ask the patient to close his eyes
2. get him to relax his body. It is to psych down, calm down, rest, relax and take a break.

3. he is to relax his heart, the seat and source of all his feelings and emotions. It is to psych down, calm down, rest, relax and take a break.
4. he is to relax his mind. It is to psych down, calm down, rest, relax and take a break.
5. he is to notice his expanded awareness as witnessed by his clearer, better and sharper hearing
6. he is to turn inwardly his expanded awareness to confirm the operator's assertion that in him is a desire to come to his centre
7. he is to notice that his confirmation is instantaneous
8. he is to use his expanded aware to notice that now in him are those deep natural instincts and intuitions that are welling and rising and swelling in him
9. he will know that they are welling, rising and swelling in him because they are coming to bring him to his centre
10. he will know when to go with them
11. he will know when he comes to his centre because of the SILENCE, PEACE, CALM, TRANQUILITY, CLEANNESS, PURITY, SACREDNESS and HOLINESS.
12. he will take them, soak them and absorb all these wonderful things into himself
13. because of what he has done he will notice his second expansion of awareness
14. he will refocus this second awareness into his centre and confirm if it is indeed true what the operator is saying, that in him there is a deep and earnest desire to be ONE WITH himSELF
15. this confirmation he will witness is instantaneous
16. with it he will also become aware that this SELF that he wishes to be one with is already here
17. he will also realize that he has nothing to do, but to be OPEN and WELCOMING and allow it to come to him
18. he will know when it is one with himSELF.
19. to know this is to know that his real SELF is this UNITY OF HIM AS ONE
20. everything else are those outer personalities he puts on for the benefit of this world or for his own private gains. All else are those outer roles he plays to get his wants his desires, needs and greeds and the cover for his anxieties and fears
21. when he knows this, he will know that:
  - a. all his relationships are to begin with himself
  - b. he is to respect honour himSELF first
  - c. he is to honour himSELF first
  - d. he is to love himSELF first
  - e. and in all that he does in his life, he is to do that which is true to this real SELF.